Do You Know The History of Valentine's Day

There are varying opinions as to the origin of Valentine's Day. Some experts state that it originated from St. Valentine, a Roman who was martyred for refusing to give up Christianity. He died on February 14, 269 A.D., the same day that had been devoted to love lotteries. Legend also says that St. Valentine left a farewell note for the jailer's daughter, who had become his friend, and signed it "From Your Valentine". Other aspects of the story say that Saint Valentine served as a priest at the temple during the reign of Emperor Claudius. Claudius then had Valentine jailed for defying him. In 496 A.D. Pope Gelasius set aside February 14 to honor St. Valentine. Gradually, February 14 became the date for exchanging love messages and St. Valentine became the patron saint of lovers. The date was marked by sending poems and simple gifts such as flowers. There was often a social gathering or a ball. In the United States, Miss Esther Howland is given credit for sending the first valentine cards. Commercial valentines were introduced in the 1800's and now the date is very commercialized.

Who knows...after reading this book, good old peas and carrots may sound downright appetizing!

To further complicate matters, his discovery may adversely impact and upset the delicate balance of power both here in America and in the volatile Middle East...Will goodness and goodwill prevail? The World's Tallest Snowman

According to the Guinness Book of World Records, the world's tallest snowman was built on February 19, 1999, in Bethel, Maine. It stood 113 feet, 7 inches and was made out of 200,000 cubic feet of snow. Its carrot nose was constructed out of six feet of chicken wire; it had pine wreaths for eyes; six tires for a mouth; three tires as buttons; two 10-foot pine trees for arms; as well as a 20-foot fleece hat and a 120-foot knit scarf. It took the town of Bethel 15 days to construct the snowman, which they named Angus, King of the Mountain, after Angus King, then governor of Maine. The town also held a raffle to guess the date when the snowman would be completely melted; 22 winners split the prize with a correct answer of June 10, 1999.

VALENTINE'S DAY AROUND THE WORLD ♥♥♥♥♥

America and Canada are not the only countries that enjoy Valentine's Day. Here is how other countries celebrate the day:

Denmark - Danes exchange white flowers called snowdrops and send humorous notes in which the sender signs his or her name in dots (one dot for each letter). If the recipient guesses the correct name, the sender will give him or her a candy egg at Easter. ♥

Italy - On this day, many couples either become engaged or announce their engagements. ♥

Mexico - On "Dia del Amor y la Amistad" (Love and Friendship Day), Mexicans randomly assign secret friends to receive anonymous gifts (similar to the Christmas tradition of Secret Santa). ♥

Japan and Korea - Women give chocolate to men they like. On March 14th, it's the men's turn to reciprocate to those who gave to them with white chocolate or marshmallows, and this is deemed "White Day." (For those who received nothing on either day, there's Black Day the following month, and those unlucky souls gather to eat noodles with black bean sauce.) ♥

Loosen Up!

Avoid tight clothing in cold weather. According to the Denver Office of Emergency Management, tight garments and boots can decrease your blood flow, making it harder to keep your body warm and increasing the risk of frostbite.

Laughter is the BEST Medicine

B.Z. Toons

by Brian Zaikowski

Dude. Are you sure you didn't order a pizza?

All Booked Up...

A newlywed farmer and his wife were visited by her mother, who immediately demanded an inspection of the farm. The farmer had genuinely tried to be friendly to his new mother-in-law, hoping that it could be a friendly, happy relationship. All to no avail though, as she kept nagging them at every opportunity, demanding changes, offering unwanted advice, and generally making life unbearable for the farmer and his new bride.

While they were walking through the barn, during the forced inspection, the farmer's mule suddenly reared up and kicked the mother-in-law in the head, killing her instantly. It was a shock to all no matter their feelings toward her demanding ways...

At the funeral service a few days later, the farmer stood near the casket and greeted folks as they walked by. The pastor noticed that whenever a woman would whisper something to the farmer, he would nod his head yes and say something. Whenever a man walked by and whispered to the farmer, however, he would shake his head no, and mumble a reply.

Very curious as to this bizarre behavior, the pastor later asked the farmer what that was all about. The farmer replied, "The women would say, 'What a terrible tragedy' and I would nod my head and say 'yes it was.' The men would ask, 'Can I borrow that mule?', and I would shake my head and say, 'can't, it's all booked up for a year.'
